

Archaeology & History

Perthshire Society of Natural Science
Winter 23/24 lecture Series

Elcho
Nunnery

New Crannog
Museum

The archaeology of St Kilda

Milestones

Environmental history of the Tay

Stirling project revisited

All talks are at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday evenings in the Soutar Theatre at the AK Bell Library in Perth. More details at www.psns.org.uk

11 October 2023. Elcho Nunnery. Professor Marc Oxenham will talk about new research on the diet, origins and background of the nuns at Elcho.

8 November 2023. The New Scottish Crannog Museum. Amy Stewart, the Curator, will tell us about the museum emerging on the banks of Loch Tay.

29 November 2023. The Archaeology of St Kilda. Clare Henderson, the NTS Archaeologist on St Kilda, will talk about past research and current projects.

17 January 2024. The Environmental History of the Tay. Professor Richard Oram will talk about his latest research.

14 February 2024. The Stirling Castle Project Revisited. John G Harrison wrote the book about the project. He will talk about new discoveries.

13 March 2024. Bruce Keith: Are We Nearly There Yet? Bruce will tell of Scotland's milestones, early methods of mapping and some travellers.